

A Talk About 'Baba' My Sweet Daddy, My Best Friend.

Words cannot express all that my father meant to me. My memory of him as a child was a great one. He was an incredibly strong man but had a sweet and soft mind. His love and care for his family was always his priority over anything else. Baba (Dad) was full of wisdom and he instilled a lot of this in his children. I am strong and courageous because of him. I remember when I was scared of facing the challenges I had in life and he said to me 'Fear No Foe' I draw strength from those words. He was my source of inspiration. He taught me the secret of life _ GOD. I cherished the support and provision I got from him. He taught us that contentment is a vital way of life and greed is a destroyer. He was never an extravagant man. Baba is fondly missed !!!
