

Grandpa,

We spoke with you a few times, but unfortunately we never met you face-to-face. It is truly a shame to have lost such an amazing life sooner than we had hoped. But, the works you have done for your family and community will not be forgotten. We hope to live up to the honour of the name that you have 'created'.

Joshua Temidayo Onunkun and

Gift Abiola Onunkun